Part Two :Comprehension (30 marks)

Read the following passage carefully; then answer the questions that follow it.

In order to have good health people must use clean and safe water. Safe drinking water is water which is free from all of the impurities that cause pollution. Water pollution causes diseases such as typhoid, dysentery, cholera, diarrhoea and many other diseases. It also kills fish and other animals which drink from it.

Water pollution is mainly caused by people's bad use of their water resource. In some countries people throw human and industrial waste into rivers and lakes. In others they throw chemicals and pesticides into streams.

Water can also get polluted from within the water supply system. For example, all over the Sudan some people keep their drinking water in a water pot (zeer). It has been found that if the zeer is not cleaned and covered, the water becomes polluted and causes diseases. Also, if people use dirty containers to remove water from the zeer, the water becomes equally polluted. Some people try to avoid this problem by fixing little taps at the bottom of the zeer. Here the person can get water from the zeer without putting his hand inside it, so the water stays clean.

SUMMARY (8 marks)

Read the following passage carefully. Look for the main ideas, and then in your own words, as far as possible, write a summary.

Your answer should be a connected piece of writing.

Today great efforts are being made to raise people's awareness of the importance of trees and forests. All over the world, millions of trees are being planted. In the Sudan we also need to save trees.

If used properly, forests resources can lead to the development of the land and improvements in living standards for the people. Forests supply us with timber, firewood, fruit, nuts and gum Arabic. Trees are a source of fodder for animals and a source of certain substances for medicine. The harvesting of forest products creates employment and brings income. This money can be spent to buy more food.

- In not more than 30 words, summarize the advantages of forests and trees.

Indeed forests and trees have many advantages like: improving people's living standards, supplying us with timber, firewood, fruits, nuts, gum arabic, animals' fodder, medical materials, jobs and income for buying food:
